THE LINE UP

David Balzer Nikken Technical Advisor Dave Balzer's association with Nikken spans more than 16 years. As a product consultant, he has been instrumental in the research and development of many cutting-edge Nikken products. Balzer is a well-traveled corporate speaker who has explained the science and technologies behind those creations to thousands of Wellness Consultants across the globe.

Reid Nelson, Royal Diamond At the time, in 1990, Reid and his wife, Yvonne, were flat broke and living with Reid's parents. When Nikken came along, they recognized the opportunity immediately, and threw themselves into it wholeheartedly. "All this success and phenomenal income we're enjoying is even more amazing when you consider where we came from," says Reid.

Vance Rogers, Diamond Working extremely part time with Nikken while pursuing a position with a youth ministry and spending several months overseas, Vance was able to generate just over $13,000 during his first year. By their third year, Stacey and Vance were able to move into the six figure category and also become members of Nikken's millionaires club while still in their 20's. "God has allowed us to build this business as a family and enjoy things that others only dream about. It truly is a gift worth giving!"
